

Unprecedented time. Extraordinary action.

Unprecedented time. Extraordinary action.

The Cleveland Fed is thankful for its people, who have responded swiftly to the COVID-19 pandemic. Some have kept cash flowing and payments processing. Others have studied the pandemic's economic effects on our communities so we can do more to help.

Our people serve the American public in good and hard times.

In 2020, we expanded our focus on diversity, equity, inclusion, and opportunity and launched our Program on Economic Inclusion. Read more about our work at clevelandfed.org/PEI, and then subscribe to Cleveland Fed Digest for additional Bank updates. Our people strive to support the economy—and you.

Looking to serve the public, too? We are hiring: clevelandfed.org/careers
